

OMPHALE 39

If ever there was a strong woman, it must be Omphale, the legendary queen of Lydia. She makes Hercules, the strongest of gods, her slave, dressing him as a woman and obliging him to spin. As a symbol of her dominance, she carries his olive wood club and wears the skin of the Nemean Lion he killed. And like its muse, Omphale carpet is not one to be overlooked. Its lush velvet stands for extreme indulgence that won't go unnoticed in any interior. Just allow her to take over. With a halo as golden as a lion's
